

ONLINE CHILD SEXUAL COERCION AND EXTORTION – LOOKING FOR YOUR MONEY

Contact usually initiated via the internet (dating sites, online games, chat forums, etc.) and/or through social media apps.

The offender will often impersonate an attractive young person in order to gain your trust.

The offender will invite you to move to a more private communication channel. They might ask you to add them to your social network contacts, so that they can access your friends for later use;

The offender will engage you in sexual banter which will quickly lead to them asking you to perform a sexual act via webcam. They are likely to use pre-recorded video footage to entice you;

You will be encouraged to perform a sexual act believing it is just for your "new friend". In reality it is being recorded;

What is happening?

Game over, George! LOL

Send us 100 Euros otherwise we will share the video with your friends and family!
You have 24 hours!

The offender will either play back the video of you performing the sexual act, or upload it to a site (i.e. YouTube) and send you the link;

The offender will demand money, threatening you with posting the video online and informing your friends and family unless you pay. They will show they have access to your online social network of friends, family and their details;

OMG!
What do I do now!!!

The preferred method of payment is usually via a money transfer site, as the vast majority of offenders are based overseas. Requests for payment could continue even after you have made the first payment.
